Sudden Ouster of Alvarado School Teacher Protested

The controversy at Alvarado over the requested resignation of an elementary school teacher by the Board of Trustees is expected to be discussed by both factions at a public meeting to be held at the school on Monday at 8 p.m.

The teacher, who was ousted by the sudden action of the Board is Mrs. Isabel Lucas, a member of the faculty at the school for the past 18 years.

The action, taken by the three board members, George Hocking, Manuel Goularte and Wilbert Hendricks, at their meeting last Monday, requested the immediate resignation of Mrs. Lucas and ordered a substitute teacher to take over her classes.

DISCUSSION PLANNED

A public meeting of residents of the school district was held Monday evening at the school to protest the action of the board. The more than 70 persons present at the meeting expressed the desire to know why the action was taken. None of the members of the school's faculty or the Board of Trustees were present at the meeting so it was voted to hold another meeting on April 30, to which Mrs. Lucas, the school administrators and the Trustees would be invited to speak.

Board members, contacted late yesterday, stated that they still had not received an invitation to attend the meeting, but added that if they are invited they will explain their action to the public.

COUNTY NOT CONSULTED

The trustees stated that Mrs. Lucas is aware of why the action has been taken but declined to make any public statement on the matter.

The County Superintendent of Schools office reported yesterday that they had received no official report of the action.

FIRST RAINFALL IN SIX WEEKS

The spring drouth of more than six weeks' duration was broken on Tuesday by light showers which amounted to .21 of an inch.

According to the rainfall tabulations maintained at the Southern Pacific depot in Niles, Tuesday's rain was the first recorded here since March 9.

Despite the predictions by the local weather "prophets" that the rain would result in a "break" in the weather, the temperature has remained chilly throughout the remainder of the week and the sky mostly overcast.

The rainfall total for the season was boosted to within .05 of an inch of 21 inches by Tuesday's rain. The total now stands at 20.95, far above the 15.91 inches recorded here for the same period last year.

On Sunday morning the procession will march from Parish Hall to the church for an 11 o'clock high mass to be sung by Father Curran and a sermon in Portuguese by Father Macedo of St. Louis Bertrand Church, Oakland.

IRVINGTON TEACHERS GET SALARY BOOST

The members of the faculty and the non-certificated personnel of Irvington Elementary School were voted a flat $120 per year salary increase Tuesday evening by the Board of Trustees.

The increase was termed a cost of living wage boost by the trustees, and is in addition to the regular yearly salary increase set up in the school's salary scale.

NILES GROUP ON RADIO BROADCAST ON MAY 3

Father H. A. McEnery, pastor of Corps Christi Church, Niles, and a group of approximately 25 men of the parish, will appear on the radio program, The Rosary Hour, over KROW on Thursday, May 3.

The program is aired at 6:45 p.m. each weekday and features a different parish in the diocese each evening.

The broadcast will be made from the station's studio at 19th and Broadway, Oakland.

AIR RAID ALARM SYSTEM REHEARSAL TERMED 'FIZZLE'

The county-wide air raid alert test conducted Sunday afternoon won the rating of a "fizzle" in Washington Township.

County officials overlooked informing this area of the coming rehearsal. The only mention of the drill was carried in a metropolitan newspaper and apparently did not convey the thought to local residents that this area was included.

Washington Township's Civil Defense director, Gene Manning, was not told of the practice alert.

The original alert system, as outlined by county directors, called for the message to be broadcast over the sheriff's short-wave system to the outlying areas, where it could be relayed by telephone from one fire house to another.

Sunday's initial warning to the township came via telephone to Fire Chief Joseph Pashote at Newark.

For Pashote to complete the first link in the chain of the alarm system, telephone the fire houses at Irvington, Niles and Centerville, required more than five minutes. Because of the present telephone system in this area each call had to be placed through the Hayward operator.

By the time the remaining fire houses had been alerted, some 10 minutes had elapsed.

Residents of the township who did not hear any of the sirens on Sunday have been asked to report that fact to their fire chief so that an improvement can be made in the siren system here.

IRVINGTON SCHOOL HOMECOMING SET

Mrs. Martha Stone, newly elected president of the Irvington Elementary School P.T.A., and her staff of officers, will be installed at special May Day ceremonies to be held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the Irvington School.

The May Day program, under the direction of Miss Bond, will precede the installation ceremony.

The program will include: A garden party by the kindergarten; rhythm band selections by the first graders; dances by the second and fifth graders; a drill by the sixth grade girls; folk dancing by the seventh and eighth grades and the May Pole Dance.

Taking part in the May Pole Dance will be Carol Barbee, Lena Barreras, Carol Bernardo, Treva Bonds, Joan Briggs, Laureen Bunting, Carol Day, Lucille Garcia, Barbara Glaubke, Diane Gomes, Carol Gregory, Linda Hall, Gloria Hernandez, Patricia Holbird, Diana Konnerth, Rosie Lomas, Vilma Loredo, Jeannine Milatz, Eva Navarrete, Patty Pennington, Janice Pennington, Charlene Pereira, Patty Perry, Barbara Santos, Jo Ann Stockton, Irene Torres, Janice Vary, and Alicia Zepeda.

NEWARK CUBS ON TRAIN CIRCLE TOUR

All ab-o-o-ard!

This is the signal the Newark Cub Scouts are eagerly awaiting, for it will send them, along with Scouts and Cubs from all over Southern Alameda County, on a train ride Saturday commemorating Railroad Month.

The Newark Cubs will leave from the Newark Youth Center at 8 a.m., going to Hayward in cars. At Hayward they will board the special train for the ride to Santa Clara. There the whole congregation will parade in full uniform with troop flags, lead by a Hayward Cub Drum and Bugle corps. They will march to a school near the station and there have their lunch, each one bringing his own box lunch.

Leaving Santa Clara they will entrain and complete the loop back to Hayward, expecting to reach there by 3:30.

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS STARTS SUNDAY

Sunday is the day!

At midnight Sunday daylight savings time goes into effect throughout California.

Designed as a benefit for the working man, to afford him an additional hour of daylight at the end of his working day, it nevertheless poses the problem for mothers of explaining to their youngsters why they should be going to bed "when it is so light outdoors."

Countless arguments will also undoubtedly take place in households throughout the area as to whether or not the clock should be turned back one hour or ahead one hour.

No matter which way the argument is settled in your home, to be sure you're at work on time Monday, set your clock one hour ahead.

QUEEN SELECTED FOR ROUND-UP THIS SATURDAY

Margaret Diosdada will lead the parade as queen for the Future Farmers big Roundup this Saturday at Memorial Stadium at Washington High. She is a sophomore student from Decoto.

Queen Margaret and her attendants will pass before the reviewing stand at one o'clock. Her attendants are Evelyn Kinzli, Novalene Scott and Jeanette Lagormarsino. After the crowning of the queen in what promises to be a very colorful ceremony, the rest of the events will take place.

The order of events is as follows: project parade, grand parade, crowning of the queen, pleasure horse contest, fine horse demonstration, stock horse contest, trick roping, obstacle race, 100-yard dash, and the whip act.

The greased pig scramble is an event that has been added since the announcement of events last week. This will undoubtedly add a touch of hilarity to the afternoon's proceedings.

Judges for the day are: sheep, Michael Overacker; beef, Dale Carithers; poultry, Kimber Poultry Farm representative; rabbits, Judge Bayliss; dairy, Louie Marchy Jr., and horses, W. Heacock.

GUILTY OF RAISING FIGHTING COCKS

Thomas Vagas, 75, old-age pensioner from Decoto, appeared in Niles Justice Court last Friday and entered a plea of guilty to a charge of keeping game cocks with the intent that they be used in exhibitions of fighting.

Vagas, unable to understand English, told the court through an interpreter that he raised the fighting cocks as a hobby.

Judge Lester Foley of Hayward, who heard the case in the absence of Judge E. A. Quaresma, referred the matter to the probation authorities for a report and ordered Vagas to return to court on May 11 for sentence.

"I don't like to send a 75-year-old man to jail," Judge Foley told the defendant, "but this crime you have committed is serious. It is worse than operating slot machines and gambling, it is cruel to the animals, and should be punished more severely."

The birds were ordered confiscated and turned over to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to be destroyed.

Vagas was arrested at his home in Decoto on Sunday, April 15, while he and a group of about 15 spectators were watching a battle between two of the fighting cocks.

YOUNGSTER HURT IN TUMBLE FROM AUTO

Ronald John Furtado, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Furtado, R.F.D., Irvington, narrowly escaped death near Niles Monday when he tumbled from the rear door of the family automobile.

The mishap occurred less than a mile north of Niles on the Niles-Hayward highway. The youngster was taken to the office of a Niles doctor where he was treated for a gash on the back of his head.

ONLY ONE CONTEST IN MAY 18 SCHOOL TRUSTEE ELECTION

With the closing of the deadline for filing as a candidate for school trustee, only one contest has developed in the 10 public school districts of Washington Township.

The only contest is at Decoto where William S. Davis, incumbent, is opposed by Kenneth Garcia. Garcia tried unsuccessfully to win the post from Davis at the election three years ago. Davis is completing his eighth year as a member of the board.

Frank Duarte, trustee of Alviso Elementary School for the past three years, did not declare as a candidate for re-election this year. Ralph Logan has filed as the only candidate for the post.

The election will be held on Friday, May 18, in the nine elementary schools and Washington Union High School.

Present members of the Boards of Trustees who have filed for re-election without opposition are: Wilbert Hendricks, Alvarado; Allan E. Walton, Centerville; Alfred Peixoto, Irvington; J. F. Azeveda, Mission San Jose; S. G. Scott, Newark; H. L. Scott, Niles; J. Orville Leitch, Warm Springs, and Judge E. A. Quaresma, Washington Union High School.

LIONS NOMINATE OFFICERS; DISCUSS CLUB NAME CHANGE

A slate of new candidates to head the Centerville Lions Club for the coming year was unanimously nominated without opposition at the club's meeting Tuesday. The group also discussed a proposal to change the name of the organization to Washington Township Lions Club.

The new officers, who will be installed in June, are LeRoy Broun, president; Michael Cimino, first vice-president; Dr. E. M. Grimmer Jr., second vice-president; Erle Hygelund, secretary-treasurer; Louis Mayer, tail twister, and James Logan, Lion tamer.

Joe Shepherd and Louis Cardoza were named to the Board of Directors, to serve along with Wayne Day, Dwight Thornburg and Edward L. Rose, outgoing president.

The recommendation was made by the board of directors that the name of the organization be changed to Washington Township Lions Club, to conform with the membership, which is township-wide.

The proposal will be discussed again at the meeting on May 8 and a vote will be taken at the May 22 meeting.

NEWARK FLYERS IN CONTEST SUNDAY

Ten members of the Newark Model Busters, model airplane club, will enter their planes in the Salinas Starduster U-controlled model airplane contest Sunday at the California Rodeo grounds.

Two hundred contestants with more than 350 model planes will compete for the 100 trophies in an all-day event slated to get under way at 9 a.m. and continue until 4:30 p.m.

Boys under 13 years of age who will represent the Newark Club are Don Wood, Jimmy Wood, Lovell Scott, Kenneth Andrus and Clifford Andrus. Boys over 13 who will compete are Louis Smith, Jerry Gilliam and Frankie Adams.

Patsie Scott, the club's 9-year-old girl flyer, will enter her plane in the competition and Dwain Wood will compete in the adult contest.

NILES CUB SCOUTS GOING ON TRAIN TRIP

The Niles Cub Scouts will join a contingent of 600 other Cubs and Scouts from the Southern Alameda County district this Saturday morning, to board a train at Hayward for a six-hour fun and adventure trip. The trip is in commemoration of Railroad Month.

The train will take the Scouts and Cubs to Santa Clara where they will have their lunch, following a Scout parade. They will return home by 3:30.

Legislative Bill Hits Unincorporated Area

The Washington Township Chamber of Commerce and Centerville Chamber of Commerce, at their meetings this week, voted opposition to Assembly Bill 3217, which would halt all municipal type services for unincorporated areas by the Board of Supervisors.

Passage of the Bill would mean that unincorporated territories consisting of a maximum of one square mile with a minimum density of population of 300 persons per square mile must levy special taxes to pay all costs of municipal type services rendered the areas.

The Bill states that "municipal type service" shall mean services or functions performed in urban unincorporated areas of the county to the same extent as performed by municipal personnel or departments of incorporated cities or special districts. These services, for which the area would be compelled to assume full financial responsibility and administration, would include: Police detention, crime prevention and police patrol; structural fire prevention and protection; local community playgrounds and parks; sewer construction, improvement, maintenance or repair; local street or road construction, improvement, maintenance or repair at a standard essentially higher than similar work on rural farm roads, and all other similar local services or functions not performed generally on a county-wide basis but provided by special districts or cities.

EFFECTIVE IN 1953

If passed, the law would become effective March 1, 1953, and the County Board of Supervisors, upon the petition of 25 taxpayers, would be required to set up the special districts.

Gene Manning, executive secretary of the Washington Township Chamber of Commerce, was instructed to forward the organization's protest to the Bill to Assemblyman Francis Dunn and Senator Arthur Breed.

Wednesday's meeting of the Township Chamber marked the first time since it was formed, in 1950, that all eight communities of the township were represented. Mission San Jose, which recently formed a Chamber of Commerce, had at the meeting as its delegates Joe Semas, Ray Koelsch and Michael Overacker. Maurice Marks, president, also attended the meeting.

Dallas Paul, past president, presided in the absence of President Bruce Michael and welcomed the new members.

It was voted by the group to continue operating on a fiscal year basis but the meeting date was shifted to the third Wednesday of each month.

The directors approved a $60 contribution to the Alameda County Associated Chambers of Commerce booth at the Alameda County Fair and passed a motion to participate in the opening day parade.

FIGHT HOG RANCH

The Alvarado delegates reported that a garbage company is in the process of purchasing 50 acres less than one mile from the center of town as a site for a garbage dump and a hog ranch.

The assistance of the Township Chamber in opposing the issuance of a permit by the Alameda County Planning Commission was pledged.

Following out its campaign for greater highway safety, the Chamber authorized the request for a traffic control light at the highway junction at Warm Springs and for road warning signs on the Mission-Livermore highway.

The next meeting of the Chamber will be held at the Newark Youth Center Building, Wednesday, May 23.

TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The Alameda County Taxpayers Association met Tuesday to celebrate its 13th birthday and to hold the annual election of officers.

Thomas M. Robinson Jr. was re-elected president, and C. G. Perkins of Centerville was named second vice-president.

The Association was organized in May 1938, to aid, encourage and promote efficiency and economy in the administration of public business.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS WILL STAGE ANNUAL FESTIVAL TUESDAY

The second annual Washington Township Elementary School Music Festival, feturing a cast of more than 600 students, will be staged in the gymnasium at Washington Union High School Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Last year's performance was termed by the capacity audience as the greatest indoor spectacle ever presented in Washington Township.

The chorus of 400 voices and the combined 175-piece orchestra will be under the direction of Lee Lykins, supervisor of music for Alameda County schools.

Assisting in the production will be the following members of the faculties of the various schools: Bernard Callory, Astrid Wettin, Marie Wettin, Doris Graves, Edwin Maughan, Vivienne Wright, Eugenie Freeman, Gladys Goddard, Mrs. Jed Oxborrow, Charlotte Sandorf, Lorene Pohl, Harriet Finger, Dorothy Johnson, Margaret Wiles, and Edwin Maughan.

Because of the limited seating capacity admission will be by courtesy tickets only. The tickets are to be distributed this weekend by the school students.

The program will open with the presentation of colors and the salute to the flag. The address of welcome will be delivered by Judge Allen G. Norris.

This year's program is molded around the early history of Washington Township and will feature religious hymns, Mexican and Portuguese folk songs, a medley of Stephen Foster songs and closing with "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "America the Beautiful."

NILES DAY SUNDAY AT HEARST RANCH

For the fourth consecutive year Niles Day is to be observed at the Old Hearst Ranch with a special breakfast and radio broadcast honoring the residents of the community.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

Lois Bottenberg

CORRECTION

First off, I wish to make a correction on an article appearing in our paper last week, but not in my column, concerning the Carnival at Mission San Jose School for this Saturday, April 28. It sounded as though the Carnival was the work of the Mothers Club of the Mission, but that is not so for the boys and girls of the school, along with their teachers, have worked out the program and done all the work necessary to making it a success with the exception of a bit of financing which the Mothers' Club was glad to help with. The Club will have a couple of booths and will oversee any other part of the program but do give our very talented youngsters credit where credit is due.

A GALA TIME

The Catholic Daughters celebrated their second annual dinner on Monday evening at Lou's Village in San Jose with a wonderful dinner. Twenty-seven attended to honor Mrs. Minnie Dutre, their deputy from San Jose. The master of ceremonies of the floor show gave the group special mention and everyone came away feeling it was another wonderful get-together.

MISSED YOU

Gee whiz, Joe Santos, we have missed that wolf call for the past several days, but we learn that some bug bit you and you are laid up at home, where Mama Helen can watch you. We will expect a loud clear whistle when you get back up town and we hope it is soon.

TO FORT ORD

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cunha and Miss Jeane Neeley motored to Fort Ord on Sunday where they enjoyed a day with their son and B. F. Cappy Cunha, U. S. Army.

INTO TRAINING

Donald Bettencourt tells me that Uncle has called him for this Thursday, so there goes one more of our boys into training. He is the son of Frank Bettencourt of Bryant Street.

A SMALL WORLD

This is a small world after all for last week while attending a theater in Los Angeles, a brother of one of our local boys saw Mr. Harry Johnson and his son, David, there and chatted with them for a while. They were former residents of our little town.

CONFIRMATION

On Sunday at St. Joseph's Church fifty-two young folks received confirmation with Reverend Father Guilfoyle of San Francisco assisting our own Rev. John Leal who, by the way, also celebrated in a very quiet way, forty-four years of service here in Mission San Jose St. Joseph Church.

CONGRATULATIONS

We are always pleased to hear of one more of our guys or gals getting good jobs and so we dish out congrats to Regina Schneider who this week began her new job at J. C. Penney's in San Jose.

POT LUCK DINNER

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Mission Fire Department gave their families a very nice pot luck dinner on Saturday evening at the Mission School. About forty attended.

NAUGHTY NINETIES AGAIN!

Remember that Super Duper Mothers' Club Naughty Nineties of last year. Well, keep watching this paper for further announcement, for they are all at it again, those HAM-ateurs of Mission San Jose.

VISITORS FROM TORRANCE

Dad and Mother James Bramwell of Torrance are here with Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Santos of Bryant Street. Their daughter, Betty, is awaiting the arrival of the little new Santos.

FROM SACRAMENTO

Mr. and Mrs. Harley L. Justus of Sacramento stopped over in the Mission on Sunday to visit their daughter and family, Mrs. Ruth Santos, Diane and Mikie.

HUGE INCREASE

Since the new addition to the Olwell Berry Farm here on the Mission-Irvington Highway, there has been a huge increase in the attendance in the Elementary School. For the past week and a half the third graders have been having later beginning hours and later dismissal hours, so beginning on Monday a new teacher, Mrs. Forsythe from Irvington, will take over part of the duties of Mrs. Millard for we hear she has over fifty little ones in her room alone.

STORK SHOWER

Last Thursday evening at the school, all the family of Mrs. (Eddie) Betty Santos, formerly (Bramwell) gave her a wonderful baby shower. There was a very large group of friends and relatives in attendance and she received many lovely and useful gifts. Decorations of baby clothes on the line and wagons of pink, blue and yellow filled with candy, were the favors. Refreshments were served by the folks following a lively game of Pirate Bingo at which Margaret Phillips won the booby prize.

The eastern-middle section of Amador County is only five miles wide.

THRONG ATTENDS SHOOTING CONTESTS

One of the most successful shoots ever staged by the Niles Sportsmen's Club was held last Sunday at their range on the Niles-Mission Highway.

More than 500 persons attended the all-day affair and participated in the large variety of events.

Prize marksmen who achieved scores in the trap shooting events were Antone A. Fields, Al Caeton Jo., Ed Winegarden and Ernest Davies.

The running deer target shoot proved the most popular, both for the sharpshooters and the spectators. Jack Soito served as chairman of the shoot.

Joe Pine, publicity chairman, said this week that the club's next public shoot will be held July 22.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Costa of Irvington; brother of Mrs. Manuel Rose, Hayward, Mrs. Joseph Lewis, Centerville, Mrs. Joseph Correira, Glen, Calif., Mrs. Alwin Santos, Clarence and Everett Costa, all of Irvington. IRVINGTON P.T.A. TO INSTALL MONDAY

The date for the first annual Homecoming Day at Irvington Elementary School has been postponed from May 12 to 19, it was announced this week by Gus Robertson, district superintendent.

Robertson stated that reservations for the turkey dinner to be held in connection with the affair must be made with him by May 14. He cautioned that the cafeteria could accommodate but 300 persons and that the last minute reservations probably cannot be honored.

The dinner is open to pupils from former classes of the school, parents of children who have attended or are now in school, and parents of eighth graders.

Following the dinner, the crowd will inspect the school plant and be shown displays of the work being done. The student body will present a vodvil, to be followed by social dancing, chamaritas and folk dancing.

During the dinner, the oldest graduate attending will be honored, as will the graduate traveling the greatest distance to attend and the one who has achieved the greatest educational recognition.

CARD PARTY TONIGHT

The Newark P.T.A. card party, last event to be sponsored by the board led by Mrs. J. R. Kettman, will be held in the school auditorium tonight (Friday) at 8 o'clock.

The funds from the party will be used to defray expenses of the free lunch program for the school.

Thinking Things Over . . .

By VIVIAN BATMAN

HI, MAYOR!

Bill Cavanaugh of Niles found out recently that there's one advantage in Niles "not being on the map," so to speak.

When MacArthur visited San Francisco, Bill, his wife, and Tom Pryor went over for the reception. Unable to find a parking place, Bill drove into a zone set aside for the dignitaries. When asked who he was, that he dared to park there, he replied with great dignity, "Why, I'm the mayor of Niles."

So they parked the car.

Then they moved toward the St. Francis Hotel. If the "system" worked once, it ought to work again, thought Bill. So he decided they'd attend the reception in honor of the general. When he was stopped for his credentials he replied, "I'm Supervisor Stanley of Alameda County." The attendant, however, wanted a little more proof. So he asked again for credentials.

Just then some "big shot" from Livermore hove into sight — a friend of Bill's—grasped him by the hand, exclaiming "Why, hello Bill! Good to see you!"

So Bill and his party, standing by while the big-shot showed his credentials, calmly walked in on his coat tail, as it were.

That explains why television fans in this area were surprised to see the Cavanaughs and Tom Pryor in the front row at MacArthur's reception, surrounded by all the "other" dignitaries.

SO-O-O LOVELY

There's one radio commercial that ought to be banned from the air.

This is the way it goes:

The announcer explains that he's going into the home of Mrs. Woozit, to find out how she likes her new Crosley television set.

"And how are YOU this bright sunny morning, Mrs. Whoozit?"

"Oh, I'm just lovely," says she.

"And how do you like your new Crosley television set?" says the announcer.

"Oh, just lovely," says Mrs. W.

"And what would you say to your friends if they were going to buy a television set?"

She: "Why, I'd say buy a Crosley. They're just lovely."

That's what I mean. Everything's just too, too lovely.

SPRING TONIC

Come spring, come the tra---er —pardon me, I mean the knights of the roads, and the "winos."

Before I came to recognize the latter, I was completely distressed last spring when one came into the office, told me the most pitiful tale of woe, and sent me off into what almost became a torrent of tears. He had to have money for medicine, he had no relatives, no home, no nothing. Well, I thought, I can't give him any home, or relatives, but surely I could give him money for the medicine he said he needed so sorely. So I did.

He said he'd go right up to the drug store to buy the medicine. I watched him go, with tears in my eyes. Poor old man, I thought, probably somebody's father — or grandfather. I was glad I had given him the money. I began to rub the tears out of my eyes, though, in pure astonishment, when I watched him go into a bar.

Later that afternoon I saw him, zigging and zagging across the street.

This week when a "poor old man" came into the office and started telling me about a horrible wound he had in his leg and could he have just enough money to get the medicine he needed so badly, I braced myself, got close enough to him to smell the wine, and stated very flatly that I didn't have money for that kind of "medicine."

Now I'm worried. It just might happen one of these days that some decrepit old character might actually NEED medicine — the kind without the large alcoholic content, I mean. Then wouldn't I feel like an old meanie?

NILES GIRL SCOUTS TOUR LOCAL PLANTS

Friday the thirteenth was no unlucky day for the Niles Girl Scouts. It was quite the reverse, for they had the very lucky experience of being taken on a tour through the Kraftile plant, by Tom Robbins. Here they were given materials used in the making of tile.

On April 16 they went on another tour, this one of the Leslie Salt plant, under the direction of Mr. Dickerson. Here, too, they were each given "samples," a large box of salt and two miniature boxes.

The girls who made the trips were Mary Ann Duarte, Mary Sue Campbell, Barbara Gale, Barbara Frick, Diane Roeding, Thelma Frates, Marilyn Lorenson, and Helen McElvain. Mrs. George Roeding, their leader, accompanied them.

SCRAP IRON ON FARMS NEEDED FOR DEFENSE

Much of the record amount of iron and steel scrap needed to keep the nation's steel mills rolling this year must come from farms and ranches. So indicates a message from the National Production Authority received by Farm Advisor Lee Benson of the University of California Agricultural Extension Service.

Worn-out tractors, plows, rakes and harrows—and even such small pieces as plow points, bolts and washers—are to be found on a number of farms. All of this is needed to make the steel for military equipment and farm machinery. It is estimated that half the steel in a tank or tractor is scrap.

Such scrap can be sold to salvage dealers in towns, or to truck-buyers who call at the farm. Mr. Benson points out that collecting and selling such scrap often means an improvement in the appearance for the farmstead.

DAYLIGHT SAVING EFFECTS SCHEDULES

During daylight saving time in California, starting April 29 and ending September 30, Southern Pacific will continue to operate all of its passenger trains on standard time, as required by federal law, it was announced this week.

For public convenience, however, most of the company's trains operating entirely within California will have schedules one hour earlier than at present so that departures and arrivals will be the same by the clock as at present, conforming generally to the times with which travelers have become accustomed, Fred E. Watson, general passenger agent, said. Trains whose schedules will be so adjusted include the San Joaquin Daylight on the valley run between San Francisco-Oakland and Los Angeles.

Plenty of power for production . . .
and some of those who created it

Last year 368 new, large industrial and commercial users were connected to P. G. and E. lines—including oil refineries, steel fabrication, chemical plants—the very sinews of American industry. Their power needs were met, with ample reserve to spare.

By summer our post-war construction program will have doubled our 1945 capacity.

All this took planning ahead and prompt action by many people. And as industry expands, P. G. and E. is ready and will continue to be ready with the power . . . and at rates among the lowest in the nation.

Koss needs five giant electric motors to power Columbia's 3500-ton monster that produces 450 tons of precious, cold-reduced steel every 8 hours. To steel plants P. G. and E.'s ample electric power is vital.

W. G. B. Euler, executive vice president in charge of P. G. and E.'s construction program. It was Mr. Euler and his staff who planned and supervised the numerous details of this construction program, one of the largest and most swiftly executed in industrial history.

Through their investment we have been able to build the dams, power plants and miles of transmission line it takes to provide ample power for Northern and Central California.

Fortieth Anniversary Observed by Niles Pair

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Rose of Niles were the most surprised couple in Washington Township last Saturday night when about fifty of their relatives and friends arrived at their home unexpectedly to treat them to an anniversary party. Although their anniversary, their 40th, wasn't until the following Tuesday, the party was arranged for last Saturday, Saturday being a better "party" night for the majority of people.

The honorees received so many handsome gifts that they still haven't quite recovered from the "shock" of it all. Many of their gifts were of ruby glass, in tribute to the fortieth (ruby) anniversary.

The affair was arranged by the couple's son, Vernon Rose, and his wife; and their daughter, Mrs. Clifford Emge of Hayward and her husband.

Singing comprised part of the evening's entertainment, including a solo, "I Love You Truly," sung by Mr. F. Mamone, accompanied by Mrs. Mamone of San Leandro. Mr. Harold Faria added his bit to the festivities by playing and singing, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

Refreshments, highlighting an anniversary cake, closed the evening's gaiety.

In announcing the month-long safety program, the Safety Council revealed that in 1950 there were 35,000 traffic accident fatalities (highest since 1949), 1,225,000 persons injured, and a total damage cost of $3,300,000,000.

FASHION SHOW AT HIGH SCHOOL WILL BE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

They aren't Powers models, and they're not wearing Hattie Carnegie gowns, yet the girls who model at the fashion show at the high school next Thursday, May 3, will have more youthful and sparkling appeal than any sophisticated Powers model, and the dresses and other attire they model will bring more plaudits than any Carnegie creation.

It is the girls of the sewing classes at the high school—numbering about 75 altogether—who will stage this fashion show, and the dresses they model are those they have made themselves, under the instruction of their teacher, Miss Audrey Carmody. Friends, parents, and any interested observers are welcome to attend and see, first hand, just what clever designers and seamstresses these young high school girls are.

The fashion promenade, starting at two o'clock, will take place in the gymnasium, where refreshments will also be served. There is no admission charge.

General chairmen of the affair are Elaine Borge and Barbara Goularte; commentators are Gerry Homen and Iras Lofton; decorating, Shirley Pasch, Mary Jewel Lopez, Mary Jane Garcia, Gerry Rebello and Virjean Silveria. BEARCATS SCORE AT WILL TO WIN SEASON OPENER

By TONY ROGERS

Joe Dutra's Bearcats, Centerville baseball club, defeated the Sequoia Y.M.C.A. Club of Redwood City on Sunday at the high school grounds here by the score of 16 to 11 in their opening game of the season.

The game was loosely played with the visiting club committing seven errors and the Bearcats three. Poor base running on the part of the Cats also lost several runs.

Manager Frank Mayer assigned the starting mound duties to W. Mosser, former Portland chucker, who allowed three runs and four hits in the first four innings.

Tony Dutra took over the pitching duties in the fifth but lost the lead when the visitors pushed over four runs.

The Cats regained the lead in the sixth with six runs and added four more in the seventh inning.

The visitors staged a four-run rally in the eighth that fell short of pulling the game out of the fire. Silveira hurled the final inning, whiffing the first two men who faced him.

H. Freitas and H. Fasio led the hitting for the local club, each getting three hits out of four official times at the plate.

Fasio hit a base-loaded triple in the eighth for the club's longest blow of the day. Marshall, Rose and Vargas each chalked up doubles.

...create a hundred-thousand jobs!

From the loam to the loom and beyond, California cotton is big business. It takes a hundred-thousand people to grow and process California's yearly crop, so it isn't surprising that it takes a lot of money, too.

If you were to ask 100 cotton men where this money comes from, you'd hear Bank of America mentioned more often than you'd think. For in cotton—and just about anything else—Bank of America matches "know-how" with the money to make it produce.

But lending money is only part of the bank's job—deposit services are important, too. Commercial checking accounts, Tenplan checking accounts, Life-Insured Savings, Thrift Club, Christmas Club and regular savings accounts ...all serve the banking needs of Californians in more than 300 cities and towns.

Here is statewide branch banking in operation—a banking service that is possible only because of progressive policies, vast resources, and statewide branch facilities

Comfort is when You don't feel anything!

Most folks think of comfort as a state of repose—a kind of wonderful process that supports you everywhere but touches you nowhere. Actually, it's the little things you don't feel that make you comfortable.

Chair Cars on Southern Pacific's modern streamliners have been built with this thought—your comfort—the first consideration. Dust-free, draft-free air-conditioning. No-glare fluorescent lighting. Soft-as-a-cloud foam-rubber seats. Lots of leg room and move-around room. Extra large windows. Feather-touch doors. Spacious washrooms.

That's why Chair Cars on Southern Pacific streamliners are the most luxurious form of all low-cost transportation.

SOCIAL SECURITY AIDE HERE MAY 2

"Many persons in Washington Township who are eligible for social security payments have not filed an application," Edwin R. Williams, field representative of the Social Security Administration, said this week.

Williams expressed concern for those persons who do not apply as they "may be losing monthly benefit payments."

To assist residents of Washington Township in filing applications and to answer questions regarding Old Age and Survivors Insurance, Williams will be available at the Justice Court, 110½ North Main Street in Centerville on Wednesday, May 2, between 1 and 3 p.m.

Williams said that the recent amendments to the Social Security Act made it much easier for people to qualify for payments.

"Persons 65 years of age, or older, are now eligible for monthly benefits if they worked at least one year and a half in employment under social security. If you meet these conditions and are no longer working, or earning $50 or less a month in social security employment, you may be eligible.

"Workers over 75 years of age may receive payments even though they are still employed.

"Survivors of veterans of World War II may now be eligible for benefits because, under certain conditions, wages may be credited for the period of active military service," Williams said.

CARNIVAL TONIGHT IN MISSION SAN JOSE

A night of fun for everyone is in store for those who attend the school carnival at Mission San Jose tonight (Friday), starting at 7:30 o'clock.

The admission price of only ten cents will help defray student body expenses.

On the agenda of the evening's entertainment are games, including bingo, fun booths, movies, and refreshments.

The Mothers' Club is assisting in the arrangements. The attractive posters around the township advertising the event were made by pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

The California Academy of Sciences maintains a large scientific library.

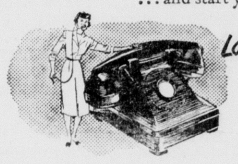
How to make good telephone service even better....

Your "information" operator is on the job to serve you . . . with numbers not listed in your directory. And smart telephone users call her only when they don't find the number they want in the telephone book. Why, they say, make two calls when one will do?

Why not keep a list of Long Distance numbers too? Wonder how many long distance users have discovered that a list of the out-of-town numbers they call can be a mighty handy thing. Saves time, you know, if you place your call by number rather than just by name and address. So, next time you call, why not jot down the number of the person you're calling when your long distance operator reports it to you . . . and start your own long distance number list?



Lots of people spend lots of time designing your telephone set for both beauty and efficiency. Gadgets and attachments only clutter up its clean lines . . . and perhaps impair its efficiency.

PROPOSED LABOR MEASURES

Hundreds of labor bills—some granting new advantages and some taking them away—have been dropped into the legislative hopper.

Assembly Bill 1721 would guarantee that no person's right to work be impaired by membership or nonmembership in a union.

Assembly Bill 2181 would repeal the "hot cargo" and "secondary boycott" sections of the Labor Code which the State Supreme Court ruled invalid. Senate Bill 1228 and Assembly Bill 2921 would do the same thing, but with an important difference. They would substitute new and presumably acceptable "hot cargo" restrictions to take the place of the invalidated sections.

Assembly Bill 3286 would prevent court injunction in labor disputes.

Senate Bill 1198 would bring the activities of agricultural labor contractors under strict regulation.

Assembly Bill 411 would make the private operation of an employment agency illegal by making this service exclusively a state function.

FARM LABOR HOUSING

Senate Bill 1215 would add numerous restrictions and regulations with respect to farm labor camps. Perhaps the most drastic change provides that labor camps cannot be maintained without a permit from the Division of Housing of the State Department of Industrial Relations.

Assembly Bill 947 would require fiscal accountings by labor unions to the Secretary of State, with copies of reports to union members.

Assembly Bill 261 would direct the Industrial Accident Commission to appoint a medical director and assistants.

Assembly Bill 745 would eliminate the right of farmers to reject the provisions of the workmen's compensation program.

Assembly Bill 973 would provide for continuing death benefits in workmen's compensation cases. A dependent spouse would be paid 40 per cent of average weekly earnings of the deceased until death or remarriage, plus an additional 15 per cent of each dependent child. In case of remarriage, the widow would receive a lump sum of $1500.

COME AND GET IT?

Assembly Bills 392 and 393 would make rather startling changes in present declarations of state policy with respect to unemployment insurance. They would eliminate the present statement which reads: "It is the intent of the Legislature that persons claiming unemployment insurance benefits shall be required to make all reason able effort to secure employment on their own behalf." Also eliminated would be an existing eligibility rule which reads: "He has made such effort to seek work on his own behalf as may be required in accordance with such regulations as the commission shall prescribe."

Senate Bill 490 and Assembly Bills 799 and 377 would bring part or all of agricultural labor within the provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Act.

Assembly Bill 2501 would increase from $300 to $600 the minimum yearly earnings which an employee must have to establish a valid claim for benefits.

Assembly Bill 798 would increase the maximum amount of benefits payable in one benefit year from 26 to 39 times the weekly benefit amount.

Senate Bill 889 and Assembly Bill 375 would increase the maximum weekly benefit amount from $25 to $40. Senate Bill 531 and Assembly Bill 704 would make the same increase in the case of disability insurance payments.

Senate Bill 972 and Assembly Bill 692 would increase hospital benefits under disability insurance from $8 to $12 per day and increase the number of benefit days in any year from 12 to 20.

Those are just the high lights, of course. There are many, many more bills affecting labor—some seeking only minor changes, some highly important. Some have enthusiastic labor union sponsorship. Others will be bitterly fought by organized labor.

VENTURES in BUSINESS

HE SAGA OF CAPTAIN MATSON

NICHOLS FIELD WILSON

ere is the story of an indome sailor boy who fought his to fame and fortune, begin-with nothing save a cour-us heart and a resolute pur-

is a story that will fire the gination and spark the ambiof every American boy, be ifteen or fifty.

illiam Matson was born in den in 1849. At the early age n he shipped in little coastal els plying the turbulent watof the North Sea. At seven-we find him aboard the ia Scotia bark AURORA,
nd outward for New York, ch he reached in 1865. But did not linger long on the coast, for destiny was call-and by the time he was nteen he had already rounded
Horn in the ship BRIDGE-TER on the long haul for the lous city by the Golden
e. In turn he secured berths

PTAIN WILLIAM MATSON

oard the schooner "JOHN J.
t of Puget Sound and the bark KLAND. Then he went mate
the WILLIAM FREDERICK, d at the age of 21 was master this schooner. Before long he sed sufficient money to sere part ownership and com-nd of a 3-masted schooner
IMA CLAUDINA, and sailed
Honolulu. This little vessel s the tiny acorn from which at mighty oak, the MATSON
AVIGATION CO. took root.
It was at Hilo, Hawaii, that ptain Matson got his first taste sugar, so to speak, and from en on he went after that suclant cane for cargoes and yet ore cargoes. These called for gger and better ships. Captain atson got them. It wasn't easy, r he was in no financial posion to order longer keels and oader beams. But he per-aded 24 friends to invest a ousand dollars each, to which added eight thousand dollars his own. With this capital in 87 he built the brigantine URLINE, a smart packet of me 500 ons burthen. In 1891 took the first step towards quiring a fleet, for he pur-ased the bark HARVESTER.
hen he bought the RHODE-ICK DHU, wonder ship of the est Coast. Other vessels averged 17 days between the Farlones and HILO but RHODE-
ICK DHU sailed the same course in 10 days, and once raced from dock to dock in 9 days 3 hours, Ship after ship joined his fleet; the FALLS OF CLYDE, MONTEREY, MARION CHILCOTT, SELINA, J. M. WEATHERWAX, ANTIOPE, and last, but by no means least, the famous ANNIE JOHNSON.

But alas for the fine tall ships; steam was chasing sail over the horizon into history, and in 1902 Captain Matson saw that Progress would wait neither for time nor tide. The ENTERPRISE was the first Matson steamship; followed then the HYADAS, ROSECRANS, and HILONIAN, the latter being the first merchant ship on the Pacific with wireless. He built a second LURLINE in 1908; in 1910 the WILHELMINA was a breath taking speculation with eleven real bathrooms and accomodations for 146 passengers. Then came the MANOA, followed swiftly by the MATSONIA half again as large. Success piled on success. The modest little one office on Market Street gave place to the present magnificent Matson Building, source of pride to San Franciscans. And through the years the founder of the fleet watched its growth from one ship of 200 tons to 39 ships of which the largest was 19,000 tons.

The saga is finished, for in 1917, as it must to all men, Death came for Captain Matson at the height of his fame. But old sailors never die. Somewhere in the dark reaches of his Norse seas, or 'down under' where the Southern Cross shines in velvet skies, Matson ships are carrying men and cargoes. Hovering over those ships, the ships he loved so well, is the spirit of Captain Matson. Urging them on and on, until that Freedom of living which meant so much to him, the Freedom which gave him his chance to do great things, shall come again to all men forever. Unique in maratime annals, the story of Captain William Matson's success is a sea-going "Adventure in Business" that is unparalled.

HOLD STEADY, THE COURSE, AND THE GOAL IS ASSURED.

The Cover

Editors of Magazine California strive every other week to pick an outstanding picture for the cover page and the subjects range from A to Z.

When this picture promoting the Solano District Fair at Dixon May 3 came across our desk, we just couldn't resist its charm and symbolic human appeal.

For what is more appealing than a child, a clown, a calf and a pretty girl? And wrapped into one picture through the photographic eye of Alex Vierheller of Vallejo, they definitely make an attractive display.

The pretty girl, Ruby Brown, and Diane Dailey, 5, appear more enchanted with Makushla, a Holstein-Freisan calf, than with Bebe, the clown. That's all right, though, for Bebe is enchanted, too.

Sonora Folk Plan Mother Lode Events

Like the century old town of Sonora, in which it is held each year, the Mother Lode Fair and Rodeo May 10 to 13, will represent a series of contrasts.

While visitors expect to see a carnival, fun zone and the usual trappings at any fair, they'll not be prepared to view cases of newly mined gold, glittering in leaf-like displays, just as they were taken from the same mines which produced fabulous amounts of precious metal in the Gold Rush days of 1848 and 1849.

The off-the-beaten-path atmosphere so noticeable to the visitor to Sonora is strictly in keeping with the fair and rodeo staged annually by the 29th District Agricultural Association.

Surpass Past

This year's Mother Lode Fair and Rodeo are expected to surpass any of the previous 14 spectacles, largely because of the wider variety of attractions and entertainment.

In addition to the usual agricultural and horticultural displays, a leading feature is the flower show which boasts some of the finest home grown blooms to be found anywhere.

During the four day show, other contrasts will be in evidence. While an Army Air Force unit will display several of the latest models of Uncle Sam's jet fighter planes, the Fourth Annual International Burro will decide the fastest of the mountain canaries, customary beast of burden of the '49ers. The latter race will be, the final after several trials of the long eared speed burners. Sponsors of the classic will be a group of Hollywood movie stars who will be on location at Sonora during the fair.

Children's Day

Features of the schedule for the four-day celebration will include Children's Day, on Friday, May 11, when school children from Tuolumne and nearby counties will be guests of the show. Friday evening, the first of the horse show events will be staged in the fairgrounds arena, with finals to be held Saturday afternoon.

Saturday, the 30th annual Days of Gold Parade, sponsored by the Sonora Merchants Association, will be conducted through Sonora's historic Washington Street. Led by the Tuolumne County sheriff's posse, it will include bands, mounted and riding groups, old time stage coaches, floats and single entries from all Central California.

The first section of the Mother Lode Rodeo will be staged Saturday night in the arena, when the all professional show will be presented by Christensen Brothers of Eugene, Ore.

The second section of the rodeo events will be run off Sunday afternoon.

Saturday night, after the rodeo, the Sonora Merchants Association will present their annual Rodeo Dance on the fairgrounds.

A queen, to be selected during the next two weeks from among five contestants, will preside at the dance as well as lead the Days of Gold Parade.

BURRO DERBY—Alexis Smith and Stephen McNally, Western picture stars, pose with Nugget, mascot of the International Burro Derby at Sonora. The fourth annual burro classic will be conducted May 10-13 during the Mother Lode Fair and Rodeo.

Solano County Fair at Dixon Will Feature Pioneer Sons

The singing Sons of the Pioneers will be the principal gate attraction when the four-day Solano County District Fair opens May 3 at Dixon, Patrick T. McCarthy, secretary-manager, announced today.

Not only will the Sons of the Pioneers be the feature attraction, but they also will serve as parade marshals when the procession is staged on Saturday morning, May 5.

Parade Planned

Saturday will be Sons of the Pioneers Day and it will be featured with the appearance of the top marching and prancing units in Northern California.

On Sunday afternoon, the last day of the show, a rodeo will be featured, with riders competing for $2500 in prize money.

On the fair side of the celebration, there will be $33,000 in premium prize money for exhibitors to carry home.

Wrote Off Records

Unique feature of the celebration is that the board of directors wrote off all records of the celebration in 1950, and the 76th anniversary of the affair will start from scratch, McCarthy said.

It is expected the turnstiles will click off an attendance of about 20,000 persons during the four-day celebration.

An Accurate Glimpse of the Future

CRISWELL PREDICTS

Dr. Adolph Sorensen, the man who keeps the Hollywood glamour girls thin and wraithlike, will soon give his famous reducing secret to the general public, which will be "ozone baths" . . . The Ozonezed Fog penetrates the fatty tissues of the body breaking down the fine cells, and reducing the residue in a very short time! Dr. Sorensen lectures widely on health, and is an expert on diet. "Any ailment can be aided by the correct and proper diet at the correct and proper time" quotes Dr. Sorensen from his Hollywood Boulevard office, where he administers to the great and near-great of Hollywood! . . . The trend for the older and stable man is fast being accomplished, for the leading 10 box office male stars are well over the age of 45, most of them in the early and mid 50's, while the box office femininte favorites (the first five) have the average age of 48! This Actuary of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company claim that in 1952, men will be marrying women three to five years older than they are! The world belongs to you men and women over 50! . . . Frozen foods will be your best buy in the month of May, due to the heavy overstocking of many items. . . . The new Valentino film will bring back the fad of gypsy bracelets and earrings, fringed belts, bullfighter capes, and flare skirts, which will lead right into the "slave girl" look for fall. . . . The next diet fad for reducing will be the "mono" diet (eating one thing at a time) leading off with raw turnips for three days with black coffee or hot clear tea which should reduce your weight by 10 pounds, as the moisture in the body is absorbed by the raw turnips!

My Dear Mary: Your loyalty to your profession has been very wonderful, but you should place yourself first, and accept the next proposal that comes along. VON'S PINK TABLETS

By SPENCER CRUMP

The old plank road over the great Algodones sand dunes of the Imperial Valley seems almost to be a title from a book of fantastic fiction.

Yet the planks served to conquer the treacherous sand dunes and to make travel a reality from El Centro to Yuma over terrain once regarded as virtually impassable.

U. S. Highway 80, from El Centro to Yuma, crosses the whitish-yellow sand dunes, rising almost to the height of a 10-story building, forming huge sandy basins and casting weird shadows against each other. And hidden somewhere among the shifting sands is a legendary treasure.

Ancient Ocean

Ages ago these sand hills composed the beach line of an ancient ocean, a great sea filling the bowl now partially occupied by the Salton Sea.

The ancient sea dried but, thanks to geological conditions and favorable wind currents, sections of the beach remained. The dunes, covering an area 75 miles long and seven miles wide, baffled early-day pioneers because they blocked the direct route from Yuma to Imperial Valley.

The sprawling dunes, the lack of water, and the hot desert sun —intensified by the reflection of the white sand—made travel through the hills almost suicidal.

Yet residents of the Imperial Valley and of San Diego needed a route through the dunes to save the long trip around the hills. With the introduction of motor cars, a more urgent need arose. The answer was a plank road over the sand dunes.

First Spike

The first spike in the wooden road was driven in February, 1915; six weeks later the road over the sand was completed. For the first time, cars could cross.

The first road provided a wooden track 25 inches wide for each wheel. Later, the tracks were replaced by eight-foot planks, about three inches thick, which were bound at the sides and in the middle to wooden ties with steel bands.

The plank road—named the "Border Highway" because it paralleled the Mexican boundary —became the pride and joy of the Imperial Valley.

For nearly 10 years, the unique plank road was used successfully. Then a paved highway was built parallel to the board road to allow more rapid travel. The plank road was abandoned and left to the will of the drifting sand dunes.

Still hidden in the sand dunes beside the plank road is a legendary "treasure," awaiting a finder. According to reports, a truck loaded with bottles of champagne overturned from the plank road. When the driver returned with help to salvage the truck, it could not be located. The truck, champagne and all, had been covered and hidden by the shifting sand.

Remnants of the Plank Road will remain visible for many years to come. The sturdy board pavement is warping only as the sand is moved from under it by the wind. But, someday, the road will be entirely hidden as the dunes shift and bury it.

portrait often seems more like you to others than it does to you."

"I work a lot with my fingers," Mr. Iredell continued. "It is faster. Why labor with a point to finish a surface? I rub my pastel on a cardboard 'palette', pick up the powder on my thumb and, with broad strokes, put down what it would take hours to do with a point. It's an evolution of years of the trial and error method. Not the only way, but it fits my temperament and often makes possible a more spontaneous likeness.

Portraits Never Dated

"One has to be careful not to indicate clothes too graphically in a portrait, because it only takes a year or so for them to be completely out of date. Sometimes even rediculous! I suggest clothes in lines that help compose the head. And I never do too mode-y a hair-do. I especially ask women not to go to a hair-dresser before a portrait.

"Before beginning, I dramatize people by getting them in the best position and light. This enriches the eyes; makes the lashes throw shadows. It's all a matter of selection and taste. An artist is not paid for his labor. You become an interpreter of people—your purpose not to make an ideal woman or child, not to make self-portraits, but to forget yourself and get out of it—so that a stranger, seeing the portrait, won't say, 'I see you have an Iredell—who is it?' But rather, 'It's just like Ruth—who did it?'

"I use very little color—mostly what red and black and a bit of blue or green will give on a near-flesh surface of board or canvas. Size to me is important —the head never more than life; the frame never bigger than the wall it is to hang on—19x25 inches seems about right and fits anywhere. Besides, one can carry it under the arm to cars, trains or planes. The silver frame reflects the color of the room and makes it seem to fit."

Sponsors Youngsters

Russell Iredell's own pet project for the Festival of Arts is the Children's Gallery. All the schools of Orange County try for this. A jury selects the best work and sends it in for exhibit. During the festival, free-for-all classes are conducted each afternoon. An average of 150 children attend daily. Each boy and girl dons a smock and is given a seat, a drawing-board and art materials. If they ask for help it is given by Mr. Iredell himself, or some one of the other artists standing by. Otherwise, the youngsters are left to their own resources.

Resultant pictures are clipped to a line with clothespins in the children's section. Crowds of people view these junior "masterpieces" with special interest, sometimes with amusement, and often with awe. "Many of these pictures are really something!" said Mr. Iredell. "I've kept boxes of them. Actually these children are doing naturally what many so-called moderns try to do with great effort."

RECIPES

By PATRICIA PANTRY

If you've never made cream puffs, here's a tip: They're easy and they're good. Take these little Coffee Cream Puffs, for example. You'll feel positivcely smug when you discover how quickly they are made and how downright delicious they are.

Can't serve Coffee Cream Puffs, of course, without plenty of hot, fragrant coffee. It, too, is simple to make, wonderful to taste. But don't forget—with these delectable puffs, you'll need enough for seconds all around.

Coffee Cream Puffs for a Springtime Party

1 cup boiling water
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup sifted flour
4 eggs, unbeaten

Heat water to boiling in saucepan. Add butter or margarine and stir until melted. Bring mixture to boil, then lower heat. Add flour all at once, stirring rapidly. Cook and stir until mixture leaves sides of pan and gathers around spoon in smooth, compact mass. Remove from heat. Add one egg at a time; beat thoroughly after each addition. Continue beating until mixture looks satiny and breaks off when spoon is raised. Drop by small spoonfuls on ungreased baking sheet, making 24 puffs. Bake in hot oven, 425 deg. F., 30 minutes or until puffed, dry and golden brown. Cool. Cut puffs part way through, crosswise. Fill with Coffee Whipped Cream Filling and frost with Coffee Glaze.

COFFEE WHIPPED CREAM FILLING

1 teaspoon unflavored gelatin
2 tablespoons double-strength cold coffee
1 cup heavy cream
½ teaspoon vanilla
6 tablespoons very fine sugar (beet or cane)

Soften gelatine in cold coffee. Set over boiling water; stir until dissolved. Add to cream with vanilla and sugar; beat until stiff; chill.

Curried Tuna Goes to a Party

These days, the words "short supply" refer mostly to money and we are reminded of this every time we take a trip to the grocer's. No doubt about it, penny-wise tuna fish is one of the homemaker's best friends and fortunately for her, there is an unusually large tuna pack this year.

Coffee likes a party, too. It's just as much at home in the soft glow of a midnight supper as it is at breakfast.

CURRIED TUNA

½ cup butter or margarine
1 small onion, grated
1 garlic clove, minced
¼ cup flour
2 7-oz. cans tuna
4 to 6 teaspoons curry powder
2 cups chicken bouillon (home-made, canned or in cubes)
1 cup top milk or light cream
2 tart apples, pared and diced

Melt butter or margarine; add onion and garlic, simmer 5 minutes. (Do not brown.) Combine flour and curry powder; blend in. Add bouillon and cream, stir over low heat until thickened. Add apples; simmer 10 minutes. Break tuna into fairly large pieces; add; heat thoroughly. Serve with rice and curry accompaniments, such as golden raisins, coconut, chutney and peanuts. Yield: 8 servings.

Laguna Beach Draws Artists And Artists Draw Laguna

By RUTH AMET

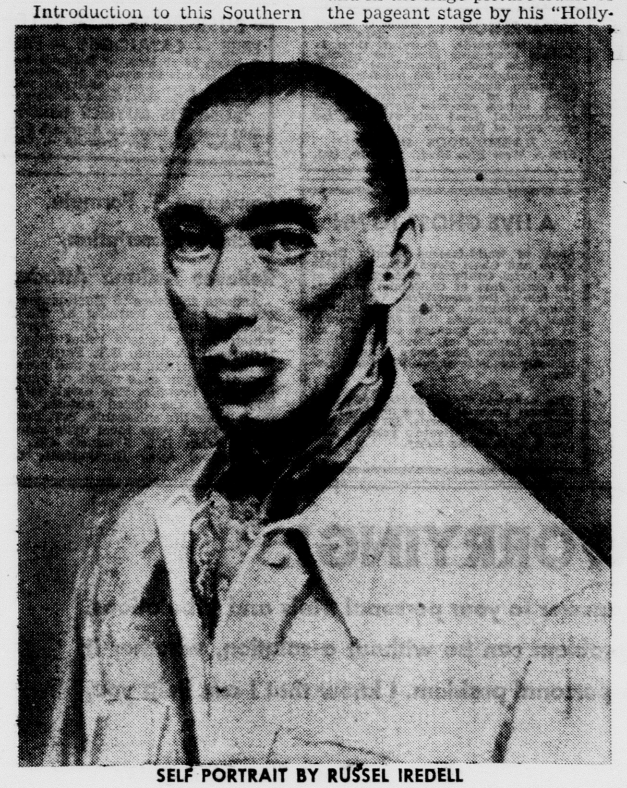
Mention Laguna Beach almost anywhere in the United States and someone immediately exclaims, "That's the spot I want to see," or "There's the place I want to live when I retire." World travelers say, "It's like the Riviera," and some add, "only more so!" Painters endlessly try to capture its allure of sea and scenery on canvas.

Laguna's incredibly beautiful coastline and sheltering hills, its semi-tropical climate, flowering trees and acacia-scented air, its appeal as an art colony with life village-style, all contribute to this ardently wishful state of visitors and residents to be.

Living Pictures

Introduction to this Southern California beauty spot and art colony comes to thousands of people through attendance at the annual Festival of Arts and Pageant of the Masters, a non-profit enterprise produced annually in the starlit Irvine Bowl, a natural amphitheatre. Hundreds of Lagunans work on this glamorous fete. More than 200 local artists and craftsmen displayed their work last year, with most of the decorative arts cataloged. Internationally known guest-artists included Elliott O'Hara, who conducts water-color classes in Laguna through the summer.

Norman Rockwell, probably the country's most popular contemporary painter and cover-artist, has been represented the last two years—in the audience, in person, in a first-night box, and in the huge picture-frame of the pageant stage by his "Hollywood Dreams" and "The Love Song," posed by living models with such punctilious detail of costume and background, color and shadow, as to send over the footlights the warm human appeal of the Rockwell originals that made their bow on the covers of the Saturday Evening Post.



SELF PORTRAIT BY RUSSEL IREDELL

Climax of Evening

The Pageant of the Masters, which began with one picture, "Mona Lisa," in 1933, now comprises three different programs, known as the A, B, and C, shown successively each third night during the sixteen days of the festival. Twenty masterpieces, posed at three minute intervals, offer both famous paintings and sculpture on each program, making a total of sixty masterpieces prepared and presented. The final picture every evening is always the same—Leonardo da Vinci's "The Last Supper," concluding and highlighting a truly memorable experience for the audience. The board of directors has just announced dates for the 1951 Festival of Arts—July 21 through Aug. 5.

Noted Portrait Artist

Russell Iredell, president of the board of directors for the 1949 and 1950 festivals, exemplifies the top type of co-operation given this community event. To have an artist of his experience, sophistication, and authoritative judgment devoting year-round time and effort to so arduous and infinitely detailed a project proves its cultural worth and is, in fact, a major endorsement of its stimulating and beneficial effect on both participants and spectators.

That such a cosmopolite as Russell Iredell has a studio on one of Laguna's "little Alps," overlooking a spectacular sweep of rocky coast and blue Pacific, again indicates Laguna's rightness for the artist resident. Subjects for his portraits come to him and, though time consumed in the journey may be long, sittings are short as Mr. Iredell works swiftly in pastels. His portraits come under the classification of drawings rather than paintings—high-keyed drawings with the most dramatic presentation of his subject possible and, in the case of women and children, with an exquisite fragility underscored with decisiveness.

Mr. Iredell's work has never been pigeon-holed. He does men as well as women and children, more recently notable the striking and unforgettable portrait of the late Frank Cuprien, Laguna's dean of artists, in whose memory a Frank Cuprien room is now being added to the Laguna Beach Art Gallery. For many years a book and magazine illustrator, cover-artist and art editor, he left a highly remunerative career in national advertising to devote himself exclusively to portraits. His book "Drawing the Figure," created so great a demand that he now has a book on portraits in preparation.

Through Looking-Glass

When asked about the portrait of himself, Mr. Iredell laughed. "Couldn't sleep one night, felt like work, decided to do a self-portrait—something really gruesome, sans shave or hair-comb. But I couldn't take it. Did both, even added a scar, finished, and slept like a baby.

"A self portrait has its limits. One can't interpret, put though back of the eyes, only draw the surface and form, and the result is always reversed to others. Few realize it, but all portraits are really reversed to the subject for all we ever see of ourselves is what the mirror reflets. That is why your own

LAGUNA'S CURVING COASTLINE THROUGH A FRAME OF TREES IN HEISLER PARK

The Laguna Beach art and music studio of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Schwanskovsky is a magnet for art and music lovers. Among Laguna's other outstanding resident artists are Peterpaul Ott, the sculptor, Ruth Peabody, Galen Doss, Roy M. Ropp, Leonard Scheu, Lucienne (Baroness de St. Mart), George Brown, Lloyd Babcock, Joane Cromwell, Leonard Kaplan, Peggy Sheppard, Roxali Seabury, Virginia Woolley, General P. D. Glassford, George Meldrum, Jane Poyer, and many more of prominence.

William Mortensen, reputed better known in New York, London and Paris, than in California, has maintained his salon and school of photography in Laguna Beach for many years. Mortensen's books on photography and his technical prosesses are "best sellers" in the camera world. Students come to him literally from the four corners of the globe. Currently, he is working with the Festival of Arts board of directors on a presentation of the "Venus de Milo" for the 1951 Pageant of the Masters, which involves the blacking-out of the arms of the living model.

As for ceramics—Lugana has become a ceramic center widely known for the number of ceramic artists who live and work here and for the intriguing originals that come from their studios, The arresting, prize-winning jewelry of Everett W. MacDonald, is designed and executed by him in his Laguna workshop. Weaving, picture-framing, and numerous other skilled crafts attract artists of diversified interests to visit and linger in Laguna.

Mystery of Fertilizing

Green Thumb Not Effective Without Food From Elements

By ALFRED AMES
Garden Editor

Now that the vigorous first growth of spring is well on its way we automatically feel the urge to feed the garden. Fertilizing is probably the most important and least understood problem in plant growth.

The relationship of the process of photo-synthesis—light, air, water and the chemistry of plant growth is a limitless field. The best you and I can do, as amateurs, is to hope to establish a sort of rule of thumb method to fill our own needs.

Let's start with those elements, supplied through the soil, that are most in need of replenishing. First, and usually most important, of course, is nitrogen.

In order for a plant to use fertilizer it must be in a soluble form for the roots to assimilate it. Hence most organic fertilizers, manures, compost, etc., must go through a period of decay before the nitrogen becomes available.

As a result the feeding through this source is slower. The added advantage of humus gained through this type of fertilizer may be of greater value than the food itself. Indirect benefits of loosening of soil particles, moisture retention, and bacterial action are factors not to be overlooked.

Cover Cropping

Indeed, here lies the basis of cultivating practices all the way from "cover cropping" to the extreme "trash farming."

If you want some interesting reading get an account of what has been done by those who put every leaf and weed right back where it originated. The best known, of course, is Louis Bromfield and his books on the subject.

Naturally, a small lot or an acre limit you and me to a small compost heap at most. On second thought, you can have the compost heap—there never is time or energy enough to water it down and spade it over.

Somehow the initial processing being done by a herd of dairy cows seems to justify the added cost of the products. Bear in mind these organic foods become available slowly. Most of them are a pretty well balanced food—that is, contain the three elements most generally needed for plant growth—nitrogen, phosphorous and potassium.

Chemical Foods

The second group of foods consists of the chemicals such as ammonium sulphate, super-phosphate, etc. Their use is indispensable in large scale farming operations where experimentation has proven the need, and the correct method, and amount to use.

If you study the label on packaged fertilizer you will find the percentages of the different compounds you are buying. These packaged fertilizers contain what the label says—but our problem is—what does our soil have at the start?

Experience and experimentation have pretty well established what the most probable deficiencies will be in any given area. If one element alone is deficient the application of the others, of course, is unnecessary and might even be detrimental. Again, bear in mind that these foods, too, undergo a complicated chemical change in the soil and that they must be in solution for the roots to absorb. Reasonable cultivation and irrigation are a prerequisite for the use of fertilizers.

Getting back to a practical program for our two by four plot, what can we try to supplement our dressing of manure or mulch?

So far we have agreed that the most probable need will be nitrogen. Let's get it in an easily soluable form. If you insist on an organic food, some people do—claim it has something to do with the vitamin content of their dahlias or begonias, use dry blood.

Pour Solution

If you are not particular, try ammonium sulphate. Now, take it easy, say we start with a cup of blood or a half cup of ammonium sulphate dissolved in a bucket of water. After you irrigate pour some of your solution near the plants you intend to help. Spill your last bucketful in the center of the lawn. Remember these solutions may be many times as potent as an equivalent amount of manure and that you get results in days rather than weeks.

Visited a large nursery the other day that applied their fertilizer in this form, through their sprinkling system—had a feeling that even the concrete walkways had taken root!

We repeat — apply fertilizer only in damp soil. Don't overfeed, just because a small amount gives such good results most of us are inclined to step up the dosage. An excess is worse than none.

Remember the old fourth grade reader story telling how the Indians taught the Pilgrims to plant a fish under each hill of corn? Some of the details regarding the timing and the age of that fish must have been omitted.

Doesn't seem likely that a smart Indian would plant anything directly over a rotting fish. However, if you're in a serious mood, this really is a matter of life and death—the most important element in the production of food and gunpowder are one and the same!

Fresno is almost equidistant between Los Angeles and San Francisco.

New Insecticides to Kill Flies

Scabrin, a new insecticidal chemical promising destruction of house flies, has been developed from the roots, stems and leaves of Heliopsis Scabra, a common garden perennial, reports Sunset Magazine.

Means of combating poultry pests, ants, gnats, caterpillars, the tomato fruitworm, and other insects are included in the review.

Halter Season Time

Mercury Rules Fun Togs For Spring-Summer Wear

By HELEN WEILL
Fashion Editor

Whoops, with mercury hitting 80, and the Sun our Sol delight, My Lady and My Daughter are in for the gayest of times, as they think of fun togs for spring and summer.

And for sheer delight in choice of color, fabric and design, our own California leads all the others in Fun Togs. Inspiration is in the very air, and for Fun Frocks even designers of Ol' Pari', come to California. One critic says of such inspiration, "Breezy, indestructible California fashions that set their own tempo for play."

Such play means from early morn, all through the day into the wee hours. And possibly the best answer for such a day would be the exciting new mix match costumes, or separates as are a must in all My Play Ladies wardrobe.

Brief Shorts

Starting with a Hollywood Casual of pin-tucks brief shorts, with camisole top that has a button-on halter collar. Perfect in the garden but time to go to market? Ah, then, add the wrap around skirt of faded denim, and off you go.

At home, and with a guest into tea, toss on the smart jacket of contrasting color with the horse shoe collar. There are four pieces to this newest of new wardrobes that can boast of still more in number. Instead of the usual shorts, pedal pushers may suit the whim, and in place of the halter bras', a crispy blouse with shirt-collar.

But for fun-time, what would be more casual than mixing and matching in color and design? These spirited togs are right at home and just as right when off and away on vacation.

Indian Influence

For two piece Play-Time, the Indian influence lends fun and color. One of a series of darling Indian dresses is a very full tiered skirt with matching blouse that is trimmed with turquoise stones set on in necklace fashion.

The East Indian motif is a favorite of Dame Fashion of Fun too for it influences both silhouette and color.

The South Seas and the Caribbean are both doing their bit in giving a new to the newness of swim things. And instead of looking a bit aside as we used to say, "Ah, the French accent!" Now Dame Fashion cuts briefly, but snugly a wisp of a swim suit right off of the Coral sea. And runs riot in her choice of daring and exciting colors.

One famous swim suit designer of California is going all out with his flower motifs, even to glorifying a long stem rose silhouette, as he keys flower gardens to actual beautiful fashions.

And not playing second fiddle to the Indian influence, but adding high note to color and design are the glorious Hawaiian motifs running in great plenty. And side by them in profusion are the designs that seem to have fallen straight from the lush land of Guatemala.

All of these are done in exciting washable cottons, the true California product, and the answer to the warmth of the carressing summer sun.

One Designer

Again for the mix-match of California change-abouts, as one designer terms them, he has a one-plus-one or threesome. In this for a summer day, he puts white dots on diagonal closing of slim skirt and brief camisole. . . to this he adds a dandy banded blouse for the cooler hours, and for still cooler, he covers all with a brightly bordered box jacket. This is particularly lovely done in black and white, with black skirt and borders on white.

Dame Fashion insists that basic formula for Playwear begins with a skirt. And she suggests a casual in frothy tissue gingham over broadcloth. The camisole top has but a halter neckline.

Another threesome that My Lady might enjoy whipping up at her own time-saving machine is a striped cotton skirt, a straight straples camisole of horizontal stripes, and a nipped in jacket with stand-up collar. With jacket, My Lady will find this a go-every-where summer frock . . .

Thus a bit of imagination, a yard or so of cloth, a wisp of the sun beam for color, a garden, a pool or two, and My California Lady finds herself the happiest, gayest one as she makes time for more fun in the sun.

PRETTY MAID—Janice Kemp models this pretty formal which features fancy ruffle cascading halfway down the skirt of the powder blue net dress.

EMERALD GREEN—Joan Scanlan wears a short formal of starched organdy. The three tiers are shaded in tones of emerald green and the shoulder wrap attaches to the bodice on each side.

California's first successful gold dredge worked on the Feather River in 1898.
